

2008 U.S.-China Women's Business Conference

Award Nomination Form

Procedures & Guidelines

- Anybody can nominate any individual or organization by filling out the appropriate form. Please note that neither individuals nor organizations may nominate themselves.
- Nominees must currently be involved in work for the promotion of women leadership in the business world.
- Nominations for award should reach the conference committee by October 6, 2008. Receipt of nominations will not be acknowledged.
- The selection of the winning candidate is made by the conference advisory committee. Following the selection, the announcement of the laureate is made by October 15, 2008.
- Support material is welcome, however any documentation attached to the nomination form should be copies as none will be returned.
- Should the candidate reach the final stage of the selection procedure, the conference organizing committee may request further information and documentation concerning candidates, and reserves the right to make the names of the short-listed candidates public.

America - China Women Business Leaders Conference will recognize the individuals who have demonstrated remarkable achievement and leadership in select areas. The following awards will be presented to qualified recipients (Each award goes to one recipient from each country).

Please check only one award for each form.

- Lifetime Achievement Award
- Business Innovation Award
- Business Development and Growth Award
- Social Responsibility Contribution Award
- Supporter of Business Women Award
- Ambassador of US-China Business Award

Information about the candidate

Name:

Address:

Tel:

Fax:

Email:

Reasons why the candidate merits the Award (max. 100 words).

Nomination submitted by:

Name:

Title:

Address:

Tel:

Fax:

Email:

Date: